

2008 Winner in THE TEN MOST DEPENDABLE™ WEB DESIGNERS OF THE SOUTHERN UNITED STATES—as seen in Entrepreneur Magazine April 2008

The Apartment Internet Marketing Conference has slated Becca Wilson, President & CEO of Spherexx.com to speak at the AIM Conference being held April 29—May 1 in Denver, Colorado. AIM has advanced online marketing technology for the Multifamily Housing Industry since 2005, and it is the primary educational conference where decision makers can learn how to implement new Internet marketing strategies. Mrs. Wilson will be speaking on Basic Facebook—Getting Up and Running between 2:15 PM—3:15 PM on Wednesday, April 29, 2009. <http://www.apartmentinternetmarketing.com/2009-conference/agenda/>

Becca Wilson, B.S. B.A. graduate of the University of Tulsa, was formerly the Information Technology Manager & Assistant Controller for Case and Associates Properties, Inc., a large, multi-family and commercial real estate management and development corporation based in Tulsa, Oklahoma. A visionary for technology on the horizon, Mrs. Wilson perceived the need for sophisticated, web-based solutions in the real estate management industries and launched Spherexx.com. Serving hundreds of clients nationally, Spherexx.com continues to provide unique, web-based management, marketing and prospecting services to meet the demand for integrity, imagination, innovation, and results-driven web development, marketing and management solutions.

Mrs. Wilson has been a guest speaker at Inman News Real Estate Connect, the National Multi-family Housing Council Technology Conference, and the National Apartment Association Pillars Conference.
